

The Alexandria Gazette

MONDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 13.

T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, have published, Dickens's last novel, Our Mutual Friend, with the illustrations. It is uniform with the other volumes of Dickens's works published by the same house. This novel which we do not think either in plot, incidence, naturalness, or style, equal to the best of the author's productions contains yet some powerfully written chapters, and some rich humor. Dickens seems however, of late to be more exaggerated in his characters than he was before, and, therefore less pleasing. But the public will still read his books with avidity, nor has his popularity much abated. For sale by Geo. E. French, King street.

The sales on Friday last of the buildings at the dismantled forts in this vicinity were as follows: Fort Berry—Officers' quarters, B. F. Shreve, $25; do. George E. Chase, $25; barracks, S. P. Corbett, $75; mess-house, J. T. Ball, $23. Total, $148. Fort Barnard—S. P. Corbett, eight officers' quarters at $10, $34, $11, $11, $17, $17, $18, $30; Edward Duterman, do. $39; do. mess-house, $121; G. E. Chase, guard-house $16; do. barracks, $83; S. P. Corbett, do., $84; do. barber shop, $11; do. stable, $10.50; George E. Chase, guard-house, $16; do. mess-house, $100; do. barracks, $176, officers' quarters, $23; miscellaneous, $38.75. Total $866.25. These two forts are located near the Orange and Alexandria railroad—six miles Southwest from Alexandria.

ALEXANDRIA & FREDERICKSBURG R. R.—Silas Seymour, Esq., has been appointed chief, and Chas. B. Morse assistant engineer, of the Alexandria and Fredericksburg railroad. The engineer's corps will commence the survey of this road in a few days. It is proposed to run two trial lines—one by the river, the other direct to Fredericksburg from Alexandria. As soon as the location of the line is determined upon, the construction of the road will be put under contract.

The National Express Company have made the following appointments; Major W. E. Richards, Jr., and Jerome Sawyer, Assistant-Superintendents; Colonel J. B. Baldwin, Orlando Wood, W. H. Nelms and John T. Watts, route agents; Colonel George H. Smith, agent at Staunton. Major T. O. Chestney, has received the appointment of money clerk at Washington.

We learn that the Washington, Alexandria, and Georgetown Railroad Company intend shortly to run hourly trains between Washington and Alexandria.

On Thursday evening last, in Richmond, a young man from this city, named Nicholas Roman, was assaulted on the street near the Central Railroad depot, and robbed of all the money he had with him.

Rev. Mr. Barten of Warrenton, Va., has received a call to Christ Church, at Norfolk. But the vestry have received no answer from him as yet.

Great complaints reach us from Loudoun and Fairfax counties, in relation to constant robberies in those counties. Horses, cattle, sheep and hogs are stolen almost every night.

A car load of cotton 23 bales, was accidentally burned at Manassas Junction, on Saturday night last. The fire was communicated by a spark from the locomotive.

Mr. John Rotchford, living near the Leesburg Turnpike, about 12 miles from town, on Fairfax Road, had his horse and buggy stolen from him last night. They were tracked to the suburbs of Alexandria.

Upwards of 300 bales of cotton reached here last week, and a quantity this morning, from the Southwest via the Orange and Alexandria R. R., to be sent to New York.

The regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the Orange & Alexandria Railroad Co., convenes in this city on Wednesday, the 15th inst.

The Services of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, were for a moment interrupted last night by the confusion occasioned by the seizure of a little boy by an epileptic fit.

The body of the late Major Henry T. Dixon, was conveyed in an ambulance, yesterday, to his former home, in Fauquier county.
